5 Residents, 2 Officials Subpoenaed

Three Incumbents Hold Lead in Close Balloting

Five residents of newly incorporated Cabazon, plus two officials from the county clerk's office were subpoenaed yesterday to appear before the Riverside Grand Jury this morning, presumably in regard to yesterday's election.

District Attorney William O. Mackey today confirmed that the following persons were served with subpoenas, and were ordered to bring election records:

Mayor L. Dee Tallent; City Clerk Helen M. Tracy; George Caldwell, secretary of the Cabazon Water District; Adeline Bloeser, election inspector; Kenneth Edwards, a resident of Cabazon; Gordon Pequegnat, county clerk, and Carl Hodges, who is in charge of elections at the county clerk's office.

Mackey, as required by law, did not reveal the reason for the appearance, or why the Grand Jury might be investigating the election.

In yesterday's election in Cabazon, the three incumbents hold a lead over the three write-in candidates, with the final outcome still in doubt due to 35 absentee ballots.

H. O. Hicks and Lloyd Williamson each received 99 votes, and Tallent was given 98. Their write-in opponents, who stated in pre-campaign talks that they opposed the introduction of gambling in the city, were: H. A. Argue, 82 votes; G. E. Moss, 77, and J. A. Newberry, 78.

Voters also approved, 95 to 85, the sale of $300,000 worth of water revenue bonds to construct and operate a municipal water system, but this outcome also may be upset by the absentee ballots.

The absentee ballots will be counted at a special city council meeting on April 17.

The three-officer court, sitting in the administration building of this 25-square-mile recruit training depot, heard testimony from numerous six-week trainees from the ill-fated 71st Platoon.

Sitting with his counsel as a party of the hearing—now in its second day—was quiet, 31-year-old S/Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon. Last Sunday at 9 p.m. McKeon, an eight-year Marine veteran, marched 72 members of the platoon through the moonless, windy night into a salt creek swollen by high tide.

The march was unscheduled.

WASHINGTON FEARS MID-EAST MAY STUMBLE INTO FULL WAR

WASHINGTON 10 — The Eisenhower administration fears that Israel and her Arab neighbors may "stumble into war" even though neither side wants a conflict nor is fully mobilized for one.

They fear that with border incidents mounting, hot-headed militarists on either side might touch off full-scale fighting.

This is the reason Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, on President Eisenhower's instructions, alerted congressional leaders Tuesday to a possible request for authority to use U.S. forces if full war breaks out in the Middle East.

Strategists see the situation this way: There is no big buildup of military forces suggesting aggression in the Middle East. Egypt has not yet mastered arms it has received from the Soviet bloc, Israel and the Arab states don't want war.

But the current Israeli-Egyptian fighting continues despite efforts to stop it. Action leads to counter-action. Tempers rise higher until, as one American official said, "They could stumble into war in an hour's time."

"This is a keg of dynamite with short fuses running out, all over the area," another worried official said.

As the danger of war rises, American policy has become somewhat clearer than it was just two months ago when President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden conferred at the White House.

Within recent days, heavy emphasis has been placed by Mr. Eisenhower on United Nations action alone. In fact, the Monday statement by the White House pledging opposition to "any aggression in the area" did not even mention the 1950 three-power declaration. It had been mentioned prominently in the Eden-Eisenhower talks.

The President himself mentioned the declaration at a recent news conference.

The White House statement suggested that the administration is preparing to ask Congress to authorize use of American forces in the Middle East as part of any future U.N. action to put down aggression.

Thus the request for action might be delayed until the U.N. had branded Israel, Egypt or several Arab nations as guilty of aggression. U.S. troops then would be put under the U.N. banner as they were nearly six years ago in Korea.

Dr. Hugh Stephens, member of the board of education of the Palm Springs School district, said today that he would "not seek reelection to that post."

With less than a week to go before the deadline for filing on this position, County Superintendent of Schools Ray Johnson said that no candidates have filed their intention to run with his office.

Dr. Stephens told The Desert Sun today that he would not seek the position on the board of education because of increased personal business pressure. He has served on the board for five years, having been elected to the office for one term after serving the last year of Frank Purcell's term.

Deadline for filing is 5 p.m. April 18, in the office of the county superintendent of schools in Riverside. The election date has been set by the board of education for May 18.

In the event that no one files for election, the polls will be open on schedule and write-in candidates will be tabulated. The write-in candidate receiving the most votes will be elected.

If no votes are cast at the polls on May 18, the county superintendent of schools will appoint a member to the board.

An itinerant office of the California State Department of Employment will open here tomorrow for the first time in the city's history, with hours set from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The office will be located in the council chambers of the city offices, and will be open once every two weeks, on Thursdays.

Payment of unemployment insurance benefits will be made to all eligible claimants in the Palm Springs area, including Cathedral City, North Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs. A free job placement service will be provided employers and workers.

Isidor Rothchild tonight will become the second person in the Palm Springs Observer Corps to receive an award for serving 1,000 hours in the Sky Watch program.

The presentation will be made at the regular meeting of the group at 7:30 p.m., at the cafeteria of Frances Stevens School.

Others to receive awards are Frances Santoro, Evan Jones and Richard Skahl, 100 hours, and Jenny Starr Fell, 200 hours.

LEONARD WOLF JR.

Earle Strebe Loses To Leonard Wolf

Three Incumbents Re-elected in Heavy Balloting

Voters yesterday returned three incumbent councilmen to office and elected one new member, Leonard Wolf Jr., to replace Earle Strebe.

The vote was one of the largest ever cast in a councilmanic race in the Village, with 1455 (including 33 absentee ballots already received) persons appearing at the polls.

Re-elected for four-year terms were: Ted McKinney, District 1; Florian G. Boyd, current mayor, District 5, and Ruth Hardy, who was the only unopposed candidate.

The vote cast was 55 per cent of the possible total of 2639.

Only possibility, and it is a remote one, where absentee ballots could affect the vote is in District 5, where Boyd leads Homer Hilton by 15 votes. Twelve absentee ballots have been received, and three are still outstanding. Absentee voters have until April 16 to submit their ballots to city clerk Louise McCann.

Election day did not pass without incident. Voters were challenged in both districts 1 and 5 with an unofficial report of four challenges sustained in district 5 and about 25 sustained in district 1.

Unofficial tabulations of votes follows:

District 1—Ted McKinney 463; J. Ray Corliss 383; a total vote cast of 845 out of possible 1438, 47.9 per cent. Five absentee ballots received to date.

District 3—Leonard Wolf Jr. 149; Culver Nichols 115; Earle Strebe 65; a total of 329 votes cast out of a possible 429, 68.6 per cent. Fourteen absentee ballots received to date.

District 5—Florian Boyd 98; Homer Hilton 78; a total vote cast of 171 out of possible 223, 68.1 per cent. Twelve absentee ballots received to date.

District 7—Ruth Hardy 77, total votes cast out of a possible 126, 53.1 per cent. Two absentee ballots to be counted.

The victorious candidates this morning expressed their appreciation to their supporters for their work and their votes, and each pledged to continue to work toward the betterment of the city.

Council will canvass the votes cast and the absentee ballots April 17.

Girl Scouts Merger Decision Thursday

Combined board and council of the Palm Springs District, Girl Scouts, will meet at 10 a.m., Thursday, at the Girl Scout House, when a decision will be made as to whether the Council should become a part of an area organization.

Train Hits Oil Truck; 2 Cars Are Set Afire

WAUCHULA, Fla. 10 — A passenger train struck an oil tank truck at a railroad crossing near here today, killing the driver of the truck and setting at least two of the cars on the train ablaze.

The driver of the truck was killed instantly. Police said the truck exploded into a "fiery ball" when the train and truck collided.

The Seaboard Airline Railroad train struck the truck at a crossing near Fort Green.

Two persons from the train were hospitalized.

Youth Center Contract Let

Contract for construction of a $50,000 addition to the Palm Springs Youth Center was awarded yesterday by the board of directors to Cal Construction Company of San Bernardino, low bidder.

Action was taken at a joint meeting of the directors and the building committee, Leo Baker, chairman, Betty Noles and Paul Summers.

The building committee was authorized by the directors to have Williams, Williams and Williams, architects, complete final negotiations for the contract, so that construction could be started immediately.

The addition will be a multi-purpose room, which will provide many improved and added facilities for the teen-age Youth Center members. Funds for construction were donated by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. A. Penke, Mrs. Elsinore Marchis Gilliland and others.

Ground-breaking ceremonies are scheduled for the near future.

Plans for the addition follow the master plan as prepared by Williams, Williams and Williams 10 years ago, with only slight revision.

Job Office Opens Here Tomorrow

An itinerant office of the California State Department of Employment will open here tomorrow for the first time in the city's history, with hours set from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The office will be located in the council chambers of the city offices, and will be open once every two weeks, on Thursdays.

Payment of unemployment insurance benefits will be made to all eligible claimants in the Palm Springs area, including Cathedral City, North Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs. A free job placement service will be provided employers and workers.

Eisenhower Signs Upper Colorado River Bill

AUGUSTA, Ga. 10 — President Eisenhower today endorsed the "top to bottom" theory of river valley development as he signed legislation for the Upper Colorado River Project.

Sitting in his small office overlooking a rain-swept Augusta National Golf Course, the President said the Upper Colorado bill "represents one thing I believe in."

He added that he likes the bill because it follows his idea of "treating river valleys as a whole thing—it goes from top to bottom—it recognizes that one thing is certainly true—water is getting to be our most valuable resource."

The Upper Colorado Project is a water and power supply system dreamed of for half a century.

The bill calls for construction of four major power dams and 11 water supply units on the Colorado and its tributaries. The works will be spread over four states, Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming and Utah, and will cost an estimated $760 million.

The Interior Department will handle the immense job, and Secretary Douglas McKay called signing of the bill "an historic milestone."

Harlow Curtice's 1955 Income Put At $776,400

WASHINGTON 10 — Harlow W. Curtice, president of General Motors Corp., earned a total of $776,400 last year in salaries, fees, stock awards and bonuses, it was disclosed today.

GM revealed the 1955 pay of its top executives in a prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the sale of 1,378,833 shares of common stock by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

After federal income taxes, the prospectus said, Curtice was left with $121,328 of his $776,400 income.

Truman to Storm Iowa Tonight

DES MOINES, Iowa 10 — Former President Harry S. Truman returned to the heart of the farm belt today to give a "fighting farm speech" which party leaders hoped would spark a repeat of the 1948 Democratic victory in Iowa.

Mr. Truman, whose "give 'em hell" speeches helped put this traditionally Republican state into the Democratic column in 1948, was slated to give "a major farm policy address" at the $25-per-plate Jackson Day dinner here tonight.

Democratic leaders, boldly claiming "We'll take the whole state" in the November elections, saw the former President's appearance as a big boost in that drive.

Bill Jennings — tells how the Mission Indians got drunk — they would eat a vine-ful of green muscat grapes then lay in the sun for three days.

Cole To Finish Tour In Dixie Despite Attack

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. 10 — Negro musician Nat King Cole promised today his show would go on in Dixie despite the intimidation by three white segregationists who pounced on him while he was singing to a packed audience and attempted to abduct him.

Cole received a slight back injury in the on-stage melee Tuesday night but said he would finish his singing performance after being treated by a doctor.

His manager, Robert Schwartz of New York, said Cole would go right ahead with his scheduled tour of southern states where racial incidents have occurred regularly in recent months.

Cole's attackers were intercepted by police before they could carry out their apparent plan to abduct the Negro musician. They were hustled to jail and charged with inciting a riot.

Gleason, Como Given Double Television Award

NEW YORK 10 — Douglas Edwards of the Columbia Broadcasting Company won the 16th annual Peabody award for television news today and Jackie Gleason and Perry Como were given a double award for television entertainment.

The George Foster Peabody awards, sponsored jointly by a special board headed by Publisher Bennett Cerf and the Henry Grady School of Journalism of the University of Georgia, were announced at a luncheon meeting of the Radio and Television Executives Society of New York.

The double award in the entertainment category was made, the board said, because "Jack Gleason, (CBS) and Perry Como (NBC), it seems, split the television audience on Saturday evenings almost down the middle."

O'Connor Won't Close Up When Polio Is Beaten

NEW YORK 10 — Basil O'Connor has no intention of shutting down the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis when polio is beaten.

"Ten years ago a man asked the question and I told him we'll close up shop when the time comes," O'Connor said. "But that's out now. The public would not stand for it. There are too many other things we can do."

Tomorrow marks the first anniversary of the nationwide Salk inoculation program which has brought his dream of conquering polio nearer reality than ever before.

Tomorrow, too, is the anniversary of the death of President Roosevelt. O'Connor's long-time friend and law partner who launched the foundation from the White House more than 18 years ago.

Bus Boy Admits Check Forgeries

Eduard Espiritu, 40, Palm Springs bus boy, was bound over to preliminary hearing at Superior Court, Indio, after pleading guilty to a charge that he passed two $250 checks last month in Palm Springs that he had forged, using as a model the signature of a man who had written a $100 check as a loan to him. April 20 at 1:30 p.m. was set for trial.

Pierson, Champion Blood Donor, Succumbs at Hospital in Indio

Funeral services for Hiram Coleman Pierson, 67, Rancho Mirage, will be held at 10 a.m., Thursday, at O'Donnell Mortuary in Indio, with the Masonic Lodge in charge.

Pierson died Tuesday morning, April 10, at Casita Hospital in Indio, following an illness of three months duration.

A native of Illinois, he had been a resident of Rancho Mirage for two years, and of California for 20 years. He was employed at the Desert View Animal Clinic.

Survivors include two brothers and one sister, who reside in Illinois.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, and Shrine, and was a veteran of World War I.

Pierson was believed to have held the West Coast record for donating blood, having given a total of 38 pints.

Friends are asked to omit the sending of flowers, and if they so desire to contribute to the Masonic Home Endowment Fund.

School Trustees to Hear Reports on Building Plan

Board of Education of the Palm Springs Unified School District will meet at Frances Stevens School at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, for its first regular meeting of the month.

Highlight of the session will be reports by architects and consideration of approval of buildings and sites within the district. Up for approval will be working drawings and specifications on Nellie Coffman Junior High School, and the high school administration and science building.

This subject covers nine separate actions to be considered by the Trustees, and affects every school plant in the district.

KATHERINE DUNHAM and her troupe of dancers are currently attracting capacity crowds in the Starlite Room of Irwin Schuman's Chi Chi. The colorful costumes, exotic dances and music combine to offer the most outstanding production ever presented here. The troupe came here direct from Mexico City where they appeared for three weeks in the Del Prado Hotel. They have been featured throughout the world, and from here go to Las Vegas, and then Australia. Complementing the top entertainment bill is the "Amazing Dr. Giovanni," who is known as the "world's greatest pick-pocket."

Board Again Splits 2-3; Denies Salary Survey Asked by Personnel Director

A recommendation by Personnel Director Donald E. Spencer that Louis J. Kroeger & Associates of Los Angeles be employed to make a survey and present a new plan for employee classification for the county, at a cost of $6,450, was turned down by the board of supervisors this week. Supervisors George Berkey and Paul Anderson favored approval of Spencer's recommendation, but the "no" votes of Supervisors Fred McCall, Roman Warren and William Jones were the deciding factor.

On March 19 the board requested Spencer to make a recommendation and to give the estimated cost of a salary and classification survey. The vote then was three to two, with Supervisor William Jones voting with Berkey and Anderson. Jones made it clear, however, that he favored having the personnel director set up the plan. He indicated he would approve the allotment of whatever funds might be needed for extra help to assist Spencer.

SUPERVISOR JONES reiterated his statement Monday. "I'll go along with the personnel director on any help he needs," he declared, "but certainly will not go along to appropriate money for the employment of an outside concern to make a study."

"I don't see how in the world we can make a proper decision in regard to salary adjustments and employee classifications without a survey," said Supervisor Berkey, "and it will take an experienced agency and its staff to complete a survey in time for consideration of the next budget."

"There isn't enough time anyway," argued Supervisor McCall. "We'll need time to study the survey report after it has been approved. I agree with the idea, but you're going too fast."

SPENCER SAID HE had written letters to three individuals representing agencies who perform the type of survey needed and who are experienced and well known in the personnel field. He received replies from two of the three persons to whom he had written, together with costs and an outline of the work which would be performed.

The Cooperative Personnel Service Division of the California State Personnel Board would do the same work outlined by Kroeger for $9,700, Spencer said, and for an additional $500 would provide charts. The state organization could not start the survey before July of 1956 and would require six months to do it.

Idyllwild Liquor Bid is Opposed

An attempt to obtain a permit to sell beer and wine in the Idyllwild area was frowned upon unanimously by the board of supervisors this week. The board adopted a policy some time ago to discourage the issuance of such licenses in the vicinity of Idyllwild.

Applicant for the permit which would allow him to sell beer and wine for consumption off the premises, was William L. (Lee) Dutton. He asked for the permit for his Fern Valley grocery store known as Dutton's Corner Store. Final determination will be by the state liquor control board to which the board of supervisors can only make its protest known.

A previous application by Dutton was turned down. "I'm surprised they are applying a second time since they were so severely criticized the first time and met with so many protests," declared Meta B. Bergen of Idyllwild in a letter to the board, voicing protest against granting of the permit.

There were three other letters of protest on the board table Monday. On the other hand, Dutton presented to the supervisors a petition bearing 106 signatures of Idyllwilders urging that the supervisors support Dutton's application.

Dutton said the license is important to him in that it will give him an opportunity to compete with other grocery stores which have off-sale liquor licenses. The nearest such store is four and one-half miles distant, at Mountain Center.

Summor Estates Creating Much Buyer Interest

Summor Estates, among the last of the big subdivisions within the limits of Palm Springs, is attracting considerable attention on the part of home buyers, it was announced today.

In addition, 100 by 100-foot lots in choice locations for both the immediate builder and the speculative buyer "are moving," according to a spokesman for Associated Realtors, exclusive agents in the development.

Special low-down payments on the homes ranging from the one-bedroom with one bath to the two-bedroom, two-bath homes available, it was announced.

PROSPECTIVE HOME buyers who purchase a home at an extremely low down payment with financing on the balance, the firm announced.

Experts in subdivisions point out that it will only be a short period of time until Summor Estates will be solidly dotted with homes. Each home is situated on an estate size among the many features offered are built-in ovens and ranges, garbage disposal units and ample closet space to please the instant cry of the woman of the house for storage space. Curbs, lawns and paved streets are already in and Summor Estates boasts of the fact that no septic tanks or cesspools are necessary. Sewers are in and paid for FORCED-AIR COOLING, spas, rooms and a fireplace, plus ample use of glass, are other features of the homes available.

With the approved bond issue to the McCallum Way straight through to the heart of downtown Palm Springs, access to Summor may be gained via automobile in less than five minutes, it was noted.

Associated Realtors announce that for those who desire to erect their own homes on purchased lots, plans are available and construction and financing can be arranged.

Senior Career Day Thursday to Stress Vocational Aptitudes

Palm Springs High School students will have different Career Day activities this year, with emphasis being placed on vocational aptitude testing of the members of the senior class.

Representatives of the Armed Services, the California Employment office at Indio, and the office of the county superintendent of schools will be here Thursday to administer the tests.

In past years, the student body was divided into different career discussion groups, with different speakers addressing each group.

The 95 twelfth grade students tomorrow will be given the General Aptitudes Test Battery standardized by the U. S. Department of the Interior. Walter E. Allman, consultant in secondary education of the county office, will give the Manual Dexterity Tests, using the "round peg and hole" equipment. He will be assisted by George Manington, director of adult education.

George A. Prosser, placement counselor from the Indio State Employment Office, will administer the Finger Dexterity Tests, being assisted by Wayland Reynolds, vice principal. Paul Summit, director of special services, will give the tests on verbal, numerical, clerical and motor aptitudes.

After all tests have been scored, individual conferences will be arranged for all pupils or their parents who wish further interpretation of the results. In charge of the conferences will be Henry Greeley, high school principal; Reynolds, Manington and Summit.

The entire student body will attend the session on discussion of careers available to youth in the Armed Services. M/Sgt. Warren J. Boes and Sfc. Merle Blow (WAC) will represent the Army; S/Sgt. Gerald L. Wilson and A/IC Barbara Moore the Air Force; H. G. Bennett, MLI, the Navy, and T/Sgt. Howie the Marines. A question and answer period will follow the meeting.

In addition, a wingless, cutaway version of the North American F186 Sabrejet fighter will be on display at the High school, presented by Detachment 1, Orientation Group USAF of Norton Air Force Base.

Red Crocodile Tears

When the Treasury Department recently seized the headquarters offices of the Communist Party in several cities, and the publication offices of the Communist Daily Worker, it was the first time the government has taken drastic legal action against the party as a collective legal entity.

There had been numerous cases, of course, of prosecution of individuals as members of a group which advocated the forcible overthrow of the government. But the party itself had managed to stay immune by its pretense of being a legitimate political party.

In fact, this pretense, this transparent sham, has permitted the Reds to take shameful advantage of the laws of the country the party is bent on subverting and eventually conquering.

The Treasury's crackdown was based on the simple fact that the Communist Party had refused, like other political parties, either to pay taxes on its income or to show why it was ineligible to pay them. Democrats, Republicans, Socialists, Prohibitionists and all other recognized parties make the financial reports required by law as a matter of course. They have only to show, by formal report to the Internal Revenue Service, that they are non-profit organizations.

But this formality the Communist Party rejected. In effect it asked the government to accept without proof or evidence its profession of political legitimacy, and defied Washington to do anything about it. After repeated requests for proper financial statements, the Treasury moved in and took over the properties under the routine device of jeopardy warrants.

These are documents issued in tax cases when there is reason to believe the defendant may dispose of the assets against which the government could levy if its tax claim is upheld in the courts.

It is a type of distraint warrant, under which many a balky taxpayer has found his household goods—even wearing apparel in his closet—seized for non-payment of taxes.

It is the instrument by which at least four newspapers have been seized and closed by the government in recent years.

Yet no sooner had this collection device—customary among millions of ordinary American citizens—been used against the Communist Party, the party known to be intent on undermining the American government, than the usual claque of bleeding-hearts writers began screaming "invasion of privacy" and "freedom of the press."

What hogwash! Since when has a band of known subversives, which uses the law they secretly scorn to further its cause, become less eligible for prosecution than loyal individual Americans?

Since when has freedom of the press come to mean freedom from obeying the tax laws that apply to every corporation and every person? The Daily Worker is governed by the same tax laws as every other newspaper. And those tax laws have put a number of newspapers into bankruptcy without the Daily Worker—to our knowledge—tearing its hair. In fact, they went into bankruptcy because the owners observed the law and reported the taxes they were unable to pay.

In contrast, the Daily Worker contended it made no profit upon which it was entitled to pay taxes, but flatly refused to make a report to the Treasury so showing.

In fairness to every citizen who faithfully reports his financial status to the tax office, the Internal Revenue Agency could do no less than seize the Communist Party assets. That its haul included some private papers the Reds no doubt regret having fall into federal hands, is something the Communist leaders should have contemplated before adopting their tactics of defiance.

There has been some press comment, too, that the Treasury should have given the Red headquarters notice of the raids, in order to head off propaganda. We cannot accept that theory either. Here again the Communist Party, like the Democrats or Republicans, is no more entitled to special consideration—or awe—than a private citizen.

The Communist Party in this country could not wield half the influence it does were not this government and many of its people so fearful of the international repercussions of treating it precisely as other parties and citizens are treated. That fear—and that immunity—are tremendously increased by the many well-meaning dupes in the journalistic world who shed tears at the first sign of legitimate prosecution.

When the Communist Party defies the tax laws, the crackdown should be as prompt and vigorous as on everyone else—no more and no less.

Myth Dies Hard (The Detroit News)

Reports from Moscow telling of trains arriving from the Caucasus area with windows smashed, and other marks of violence attribute the vandalism to Georgian fury over the discrediting of Stalin. Here is a first sign that the maneuver by Nikita Khrushchev may in time be revealed as a monumental blunder.

Since it is incredible that Stalin's former lieutenants are penitent and ashamed of their roles in history to which they are captive, the only other explanation is that the renunciation is aimed to strengthen their own political credit. This is true of any public confession. Admission of guilt, if not moved by the need to clear the conscience, is an attempt to deceive in the hope of winning greater trust.

As a bid for the world's good opinion, the maneuver has the obvious defect that Bulganin, Mikoyan and the others are known to have been Stalin's creatures. He made them and bequeathed them his power. They in turn provided the close support without which Stalin could not have lasted. Thus they not only shared in the crimes but made them possible. This the world well understands.

Let's suppose then that Khrushchev spoke for the effect on the masses of Russia. If there is growing unrest which the regime interprets as a delayed reaction against absolute rule, pushing Stalin from his pedestal could be a way of saying that things are better now, and power is more benign.

In that lies the chance of the fatal miscalculation. A people cannot emotionally accept the fact that a leader trusted for the greater part of a lifetime was an abomination. It is equivalent to admitting that the whole basis of the national life is vile and weak, and nature rebels against it. Eight years after Hitler died, secret polls showed that most West Germans still believed there was more good than evil in National Socialism.

Correspondents report that the people of Main Street, Moscow, still revere Stalin. It could hardly be otherwise. To accept the dictated judgment of him without inner protest, they would have to be utterly lacking in personal and social character. By a paradox, they cannot acknowledge the new freedom without conceding that they are slaves. This is the point which Khrushchev & Co. may have overlooked.

The Clue Hunters

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

Now that the election is over, we can get down to the solid business of the 20th annual Desert Circus, slated to get rolling just a week from today with its parade, merry-making and all of the usual attractions.

The annual Circus is, and always has been, fun.

THE BIG TOP BALL was really held under a big top in the early circuses. And the participants masqueraded, so they tell me.

One somewhat slightly plump Villager on the distaff side (Boy, did I hedge on that one!) came attired as the devil. Utilized some apparel popular in Winter in the chilly east but of no use here—long, red undies.

It was a perfect costume and was a sensation of the ball. Especially when it split right down the back.

COMES A CALL from a male driver who is lured by the "no left turn" sign on Indian Avenue. "They bothered me at first," he said, "until I found a way to beat them. If I am in the parking lot on the west side back of the bank and want to turn north, I don't violate the rule against left turns."

"There's no sign prohibiting going straight across the street so I just go directly across, circle around the lot east of Indian Avenue and obey that sign 'Right Turn Only' implicitly and am on my way north."

BEING A TWO-FINGERED expert on the typewriter and often gazing away at the pretty pictures on the calendar while clobbering out these pieces, I sometimes find funny combinations on returning to the business at hand.

There are a lot of words wherein just one shifting of the letters changes the meaning. Like "United" when you mean "United". And what a difference when you hit the "u" instead of the "t" and you unwittingly say something has now happened instead of has not happened, which you meant in the first place.

One set of words in which a transposition of two letters does not change the meaning much is "marital" and "martial." The first often leads to the second.

LIKE TO LAY a little wager on the horses once in a while? Just read some statistics which reveal that California has more racing dates (horses) than any other state in the Union. There are 373 days in the year set aside for the pastime of wishing (a) you hadn't bet that goat, or (b) if he won, that you'd bet more.

Ohio is second with 339, Illinois third with 294. New York has 182 and Kentucky, the home of the thoroughbred, only 68.

NOW FOR A SPOT of cribbing from other newspapers.

The Indianapolis News says the H-Bomb is the most famous bomb in the world although most of us wouldn't know it from atom.

From the same city, the Indianapolis Star believes that what most countries are asking of the United States is to be left a loan.

And Jack Herbert says that it takes a strong will power for a man to quit his bad habits—but many wives have strong will power.

Library Notes

Notable Books of 1955

Once again the Public Libraries Division of the American Library Association has published its annual list of notable books, this year 46 in number. The Notable Books Council of the Division, composed of 12 members, cooperated with 55 libraries in the selection of books for the list. . . . and it is interesting to note that the Welwood Murray Memorial Library has on its shelves 33 of these books, 31 of which it owns and two on loan from the Riverside County Library.

"The books on this list," says the Council, "were chosen for these factors: sincerity and honesty of presentation, factual correctness, literary excellence, contribution to man's understanding of himself and the times in which he lives. Omitted were new editions, condensations, compilations and titles that were parts of older and larger works."

THE LIST is sufficiently catholic to satisfy any taste. It contains only three novels, all of which are available at the library: Kamala; Markandaya; Nectar in a Sieve; G. R. Millar; Crossbowman's Story of the First Exploration of the Amazon; Zoe Oldenbourg; The Cornerstone. The non-fiction books included on the list and owned by the library are:

G. W. Allen: Solitary Singer; Erica Anderson: The World of Albert Schweitzer; J. A. Bishop: The Day Lincoln Was Shot; Chester Bowles: New Dimensions of Peace; William Bridgman: The Lonely Sky; Millar Burrows: Dead Sea Scrolls; Rachel Carson: The Edge of the Sea; Gilbert Chase: America's Music from the Pilgrims to the Present. Have watched and listened to courtroom attorneys defending clients in many a case during a span of years. The furious pace of thinking on the part of many of these attorneys while on their feet has never ceased to be of great interest to me—a dullard. All of this brings to mind one attorney by the name of Russell Parsons who will be defending George Zouganis in Judge Hilton McCabe's Superior Court this coming Friday. George is charged with bookmaking and Attorney Parsons knows the law of evidence so well he upset police departments throughout the state with his famous Cahan case.

The Cahan case, if you may not remember, reversed police procedure in gathering of evidence and illegal search and seizure. The police raised a howl of protest when the California Supreme Court ruled that henceforth hidden microphones and crashing in of doors without a search warrant was an invasion of man's constitutional rights.

So my dear children read Saturday's edition of The Desert Sun. It is not meant by the above statement that Parsons is going to pull something out of a black bag, but if Judge McCabe sustains a motion of his having to do with probable cause, George Zouganis, one of the most beloved characters in this town of Palm Springs, may walk out of that court room washed clear of all charges lodged against him by Sheriff Joe Rice.

There are many in this Village who are holding their fingers crossed for George. I wish to remind my readers that I never made a bet on a horse with the exception of two or three times in the past years and these occasions were at Santa Anita, a legal state gambling institution.

SAW JOHNNY "Pick-up-the-Check" Meyers at the Racquet Club. He introduced me to his lovely wife Diane. "We were driven out of Europe by the intense cold there while on our honeymoon," said Johnny. They exchanged marital vows in New York City in January.

Bill Groves, last year's high sheriff of Circus Week, has been quietly guesting at El Mirador with his lovely wife. He is at least 30 pounds lighter than last year.

Saw Kenneth Colburn at the El Mirador last Sunday. Former owner of The Center, it is the first sight of him in town in a long time. He was with his de-mure and sweet wife. Ernie and Bernie Young will be taking off for Hibbing, Minnesota, next Sunday after three months here. Can that gal play the violin! Frances Markland, in charge of the dining room at the same hotel, spent years at The Desert Inn. When Frank Bogert had a chance to grab her and her right hand bower Katherine Snyder, he and it was a wise move. They have been a great asset to Mirador this season.

Wonder if Tex Kidwell will repeat his performance in London this summer as he did three years ago. Walking down the street of that English metropolis he was stopped by Bobby (English for cop) asked to hand his 44's over. Seems there's a law again waiting 44's in England.

BUCK HARRIS was celebrating his birthday in The Desert other night and there were many who were glad-handing him. His wife was right beside him too. Frank Sinatra in one of his dour moods was having a farewell snack at the same place before sailing for Spain. Jimmy van Huesen was right beside him. By the way, hear Ava is in Spain too.

First time I have seen Harold Lewin out in a long time. The guy who hands you the juicy cuts of meat at the Village Market. Once I wrote that he was an employee of that establishment and the next day Lewin called to inform me that he is the owner of the meat concession that super-market. A sweet guy is Harold Lewin, believe me.

When Western Air Lines 10 plane lifts into the air two lagers and several friends will aboard, bound for Las Vegas and a marriage for the pair. The plane with the marriage bound couple will be Mr. Mrs. Abe Schwartz, Mr. Mrs. Roy Kreitzman, Mr. Mrs. Robert Dieter and Mr. Mrs. Emil Roberts. And the group will gather around Mr. Cobin and Mrs. Ann Karp who the two exchange marital vows before Rabbi Arthur Liebow (known to many here by way), at the Last Frontier night or perhaps early tomorrow morning. So at last, Marty bin, owner of Marty's Sam Shop, and Mrs. Karp, who have been together for nearly several months almost nighly, are taking the last and first step to complete happiness and so do their friends.

Bill Kennedy, columnist of the L. A. Evening Herald Express, due at The Rossmore. He is without a doubt the humorous columnist in L. A. day. In the Carnival Room listen to Ukie were Bob Ho who came to hear Ukie and surprised to find the joint longed to Spielgelman, a friend. Also, there was J. Haley, nationally known comedian, Bill Gargan and Trav edian, with a string of 13 friends. And according to Dan Howe there was a horse who got up after winning a race he star wearing his tail in a snood.

EARL WILSON:

Is Zsa Zsa 'Disengaged'?

NEW YORK—Zsa Zsa Gabor's engagement to Hollywood builder Hal Hayes is reported to be off already—although Mama Jolie Gabor denies it and told me that Zsa Zsa's small daughter is crazy about Hayes. "Vy, just today," Jolie said, "I talked to my granddaughter who had been veested in Hollywood by Meester Hayes who brought her presents. She said to me, 'I am so happy now because I am expecting another veest from my future father'."

The reason producer Gant Grather and other close friends of Grace Kelly aren't going along on the honeymoon yacht as planned is that Prince Rainier needed that space for his skin-diving equipment. I got chicked up in a dinner jacket for the Ringling Circus opening—where everybody talked about the absence of famous clown Emmett Kelly due to a labor battle between the circus and AGVA. "Do you miss him?" I asked Pat Valdo, the famous circus boss. "Yes, but the circus'll go on without him," said Valdo. "The circus went on," he added, philosophically, "without Barnum & Bailey."

NANETTE FABRAY was at the circus with Playboy Emeritus Bob Ritchie, Celeste Holm was with Earl Blackwell, Conrad Hilton was with a young beauty named Stephanie Kroeck—and everybody must have been amazed by the "Four Nocks," "the Great Alzanas" and "the Hildays," who ride bicycles upside down while suspended 50 feet in midair. "Look, ma, no hands," exclaimed one spectator, adding with a shudder, "if he misses, it'll be 'Look, ma, no head.'"

You hear funny things at the circus. Irwin Kramer, the hotel heir, was smoking French cigarettes. "How are they?" he was asked by some of a crowd that included Henry Rose, Joe Eckhouse, Hubie Boschwitz, etc. "They're terrible," he replied, with obvious sincerity. "Then why do you smoke them?" was asked—and he said, "I 'em!"

The Celebrity Service Bull made a typographical error other day and reported Marilyn Monroe was busy Phoenix filming "Bust Stop."

Proper Packing Important in Mailing of Gift

The care applied to the selection of a gift for a distant loved one should not be lost in its preparation for mailing. Postmaster Merrill Williams said today.

The postmaster directed his suggestions primarily at what he described as occasional mailers, declaring that business houses know the value of proper packaging.

"When it is realized what may happen to an improperly prepared parcel as it mingles with heavier packages, it is no wonder that the parcel post window clerk sometimes finds it necessary to refuse to accept a package," Williams said.

Parcels which come apart in transit cause unnecessary delay and possible loss or damage to the contents, he explained.

The postmaster urged prospective mailers to consult any parcel post window clerk for advice on how to prepare a package for the mails and for details on regulations.

He listed the following general suggestions:

"Use a sturdy box, use stuffing to prevent rattling and to help prevent crushing, use heavy wrapping paper, use strong cords, enclose name and address for delivery and your return address inside the package, print name and address for delivery and your return address clearly and completely in the outside. Enclose a letter or message if you wish but write 'first class mail enclosed' on the outside of the package and affix postage for the letter in addition to the parcel post charge."

NEW YORK (AP) — This may be the year in which Herb Score starts proving that he is the greatest southpaw since Lefty Grove.

That's the prospective tag they hung on him last season when the Indian fireballer won 16 games and set an all-time rookie record of 245 strikeouts. Wildness alone was blamed for his failure to win 20 games.

But from out of the West comes the word that the modest 22-year-old finally has controlled his curve ball.

If that is so, American League batters are in for a rough season whenever Score is on the mound. And there is evidence at hand to support the claim.

For in 27 innings this spring, Score walked only 12 men while striking out 25. Over that stretch he yielded only 13 hits and three runs.

SCORE'S THROWING arm has been a source of wonder ever since he was a youngster. The first one to be surprised was his mother.

"Almost as soon as I could walk, I opened the refrigerator door and started throwing eggs all over the kitchen," he recalls with a grin. "And as a kid, I never thought of hitting anybody when I got mad. I'd pick up something and throw it."

In the fall of 1952, after Cleveland had signed him for a $60,000 bonus, he startled Birdie Tebbetts, current manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs who then was a Cleveland catcher. Young Herb, at the tail end of his first season in organized ball, was called up to the stadium for a look-see.

Tebbetts was catching him when the youngster said:

"Here comes a fast ball."

"Fast ball," Tebbetts screamed, "what is that you've been throwing."

"Oh, I was just loosening up," Herb replied.

TEBBETTS called time and went over to Joe Tipton, another catcher.

"You catch him," Birdie said. "If that was just warming up, his fast ball will go right through me."

Herb went back on the farm for two years and at Indianapolis in 1954 led the association with 22 wins and 330 strikeouts—but also led in walks with 140.

STILL, WHEN he came up last spring he was a sensation. Art Nehf, a pitching star for John McGraw in the '20's, took one look and labeled the six foot, two inch thin man "The greatest young southpaw I've seen since Lefty Grove."

But that wildness hurt Score in the first half of the season as he could do no better than an 8-7 mark to that point. His curve just wouldn't take orders and for a time young Herb feared that it might cause his eviction from the major leagues. But Manager Al Lopez stuck with him and gradually the young man recovered reasonable control.

So he wound up with a 16-10 mark and broke Grover Cleveland Alexander's rookie strikeout mark of 227 set 'way back in 1911. He was the league's rookie of the year in a county canter.

Dons Will Tour Latin America

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The University of San Francisco's two-time NCAA championship basketball team will make a 45-day "goodwill tour" of Central and South America, according to officials of the school.

They said the tour, under the sponsorship of the Department of State, is slated to start in mid-June and will last throughout July. USF head coach Phil Woolpert will accompany the 14-man squad, made up primarily of senior members of the 1956 NCAA championship team—including All-American Bill Russell and K. C. Jones. The team will be augmented by UCLA's sensational Willie Naulls, invited by USF as its special guest teammate.

Herrera Named For Third Game

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The Los Angeles Angels will send Hy Cohen to the mound tonight in an attempt to break a 1-1 opening series deadlock with the San Diego Padres. Tom Herrera was named San Diego's starting pitcher for the single night game.

Out of this World Tourney Under Way

Dunne; kneeling, Helena Clemens and Lucille Roellig. Absent were Bill Bruckner, Gretchen Gerhart and Roberta Decker. Tournament play is now under way, with the White Sox and Desert Sun teams to meet in the finals at 7:30, Monday, in the high school gym. A Summer league is also planned, with additional information available from Howard Haddock at 2202. (Desert Sun photo)

Bums, Yanks Figured Tops Again By UP

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — The Dodgers and the Yankees. That's this baseball observer's selections for the coming season, just as they were last spring.

Here are the top to bottom picks in both leagues, based on six weeks of covering the spring training camps:

National:
1-Brooklyn
2-Milwaukee
3-St. Louis
4-Cincinnati
5-Philadelphia
6-New York
7-Chicago
8-Pittsburgh

American:
1-New York
2-Boston
3-Chicago
4-Cleveland
5-Detroit
6-Kansas City
7-Washington
8-Baltimore

Although the Dodgers may have pitching problems, with Johnny Podres in the Navy and Billy Loes and Karl Spooner nursing the same arm ailments which plagued them last season, they appear to be the class of the field. They have the best defensive team in the league, the strongest bench, and more than enough hitting.

THE BRAVES' HOPES were high until Gene Conley, the key man on their pitching staff, came up with his chronic back ailment again. Without a healthy Conley, Milwaukee doesn't figure to go all the way, for no matter how good a club is, it can't afford to lose its No. 1 stopper.

Under a new manager, Freddie Hutchinson, who has instilled a new spirit among the players, the Cardinals promise to be the surprise club of the lot.

Cincinnati, like St. Louis, also has pitching problems. The Redlegs could well be the powerhouse of the league; but their defense does not match their hitting.

Outside of Robin Roberts, who is as good as they come, the Phillies also lack pitching. They lack power, too, although they have the league's leading batter in Richie Ashburn. The Giants, despite the brilliant Willie Mays, don't figure and neither do the Cubs and Pirates.

THE OTHER SEVEN American League managers agree that Casey Stengel of the Yankees has the "best and most talent."

Cleveland appears to have lost too much power when it gave up Larry Doby to the White Sox for Chico Carrasquel and Jim Busby and it needs plenty of power to back up its pitching, for its infield is shoddy defensively.

YANKS FEAR BOSOX
The Red Sox are the team Stengel fears most. Boston's only problem appears to be the infield, which has been poor defensively.

The White Sox are likely to run into pitching trouble, although they figure in the pennant picture because of the power they gained when they acquired Doby.

Detroit is building on youth and any club with players like shortstop Harvey Kuenn, American League batting champion Al Kaline and third base Ray Boone—a good bet to drive in more than 100 runs—can't be counted out of the running.

As for the Athletics, Senators and Orioles, they'll be going along just for the ride.

New Race Record

SAN BRUNO, Calif.—Trainer Noble Threewit saddled his eighth straight winner at Tanforan Tuesday for what is believed to be an all-time record for consecutive wins for a trainer. The string started on Thursday and a theoretical $2 parlay on the eight winners would have paid $1,527,679.45.

Mrs. Jack Demeral, of Annandale Country Club, posted a gross 75 yesterday to lead the first round of the 26-hole championship flight of the 21st annual O'Donnell Golf Club's Women's Invitational Tournament.

Mrs. Paul Gardner of LACC, was second at the halfway mark with 78, and Gwen McIntyre, of Tamarisk Country Club, followed at third place with a 79.

The championship flight and some of the Palm Springs flight will finish this afternoon. Most of the Desert flight finished yesterday, are not so low as to

Williams Back In Stride, Red Sox Ready For Race

By FRED DOWN

The Boston Red Sox are finally squared away today for the opening of the American League pennant chase: Ted Williams has found the home run range and is stepping up his training campaign.

The 37-year-old, $100,000-a-year outfielder blasted his first homer of the Grapefruit League season Tuesday and Boston enthusiasts considered it no coincidence that the Red Sox crushed the Philadelphia Phillies, 21-1, at Greenville, S. C.

Catcher Joe Ginsberg hit a two-run homer in the ninth inning to give the Kansas City Athletics a 4-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

At Knoxville, Tenn., the Washington Senators gained a 50-50 split in their Spring series with the Cincinnati Redlegs when they pounded out a 9-3 verdict.

In the only other game played, the New York Yankees got eight-hitting pitching from Whitey Ford and Bob Grim to beat Dallas of the Texas League, 6-33.

Snead Doubtful Vegas Starter

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Sam Snead today remained as the only one out of 24 eligible golfers not to sign up to play in the $37,500 Tournament of Champions April 26-29 at the Desert Inn course.

Tournament director Allard Roen said Snead was considered a doubtful starter. He said the other 23 eligible golfers had confirmed their participation in the West's richest tournament.

Thunderbird Event Draws Stellar List

Star-Studded Field Starts Tomorrow In 3-Day Tourney

By FRED C. WEIGEL

"Out of this World!"

Golfing enthusiasts across the western United States are whispering today about the newest member-guest tournament of the golfing world—the Out of this World Tournament at Thunderbird Country Club.

Dick Meyers, chairman for the event which will be held at Thunderbird Thursday, Friday and Saturday, compared this tournament with such magical names as the Hills-dilly at Cherry Hills Country Club in Denver; the Swinger at Tulsa Country Club and the Hell-a-balloo at Boboling Country Club in Chicago.

MEMBERS HAVE INVITED guests from all over the western states to attend, and the roster of pairings looks like Who's Who of the golfing and movie world. Included among entrants are Bing Crosby, Richard Arlen, Gordon McRae, Phil Harris, Desi Arnaz, and well-known golfers Allen Dale, John Dawson, Jim Walsh, and Bill Higgins. Thunderbird members include many regulars such as J. Ross Clark, Milton Hicks, George E. Cameron Jr., Ralph Kenaston, Ed Janss and Joe Dyer. Orrin Davidson of San Francisco, Bob Goldwater of Phoenix and Bill Worthing of Las Vegas have also registered to play.

THE COMMITTEE for the Out of this World Tournament has included all lunches and dinners in the registration fee, and each player will receive a cashmere sweater and golf cap displaying the new emblem for the Out of this World Tournament. This emblem, a replica of a globe, has at the top left hand corner the famous Thunderbird. It was designed by Eddie Susalla, associate pro at the club.

On the Tournament "work party" with Dick Meyers are Eddie Susalla, Jimmy Hines, Thunderbird pro, teachers and pros Bill Adkins and Mike Partik, Caddie Master Arnie Bacca and starter Roy Sanders.

THE GATHERING of golfers for the Tournament started yesterday and a cocktail party was held last night. Practice rounds are being played today and pairings will be made for the tournament start tomorrow.

Tonight the Derby Dinner will be held in the tent and, according to Meyers in accordance with the wishes of the U.S. Golf Association there will be no Calcula.

Thursday night the players and guests will be free to "see the town" and enjoy other events in the Village.

FRIDAY NIGHT, a hayride to a western bar-becue away from the club and as an innovation, Meyers said "Desi Arnaz" orchestra will play "Home on the Range" with a Mombie beat!

Thursday noon will be a special show for the women who accompany their husbands to the tournament. An "Out of this World" style show by J. W. Robinson Company of Palm Springs will be presented at a luncheon in the tent. Mrs. Buckie Harris is in charge of the women's program.

Moore Easy Winner

RICHMOND.—Light heavyweight Archie Moore slapped a terrified Willie Bean to the canvas six times Tuesday night before winning a TKO in 2:46 of the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round bout.

O.K. Giant Stadium
NEW YORK.—New York Giants President Horace Stoneham has expressed satisfaction today in blueprints outlined by civic officials for a 110,000-seat municipal stadium which would be made available to the ball team. The proposed new structure is expected to cost $20 million.

P.S. Tankmen Overwhelm Redlands Hi

By JOHN SIMON

Avenge an earlier defeat at the hands of the Redlands swim squad, Coach Wayland Reynolds' Palm Springs tankmen gained a surprising 50-28 victory in the varsity division.

The B's didn't fair as well, however, losing 44-32. The Indian C's had their closest call of the year, but remained undefeated as they squeaked past their opponents 21-20.

John Cunningham led the A's to victory with a win in the diving and the 50-yard freestyle. He also was anchorman on the winning four-man relay. Putting out an excellent performance, Cunningham scored 190 points in the diving to outscore his closest opponent by 50 points.

BAD WEATHER REDUCES FIRST DAY PCL CROWDS

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Pacific Coast League season boomed off with much fanfare yesterday, but the fans were somewhat discouraged because the weather wasn't fair.

Cloudy skies and low temperatures kept attendance down all over the circuit and for the most part the civic officials, starlets and comedians who turned out to throw, bat and catch baseballs did so before poor houses.

Only in San Francisco did an opening game crowd of proportions turn out and there the rains delayed the game and pelted the paying customers and paid performers. But the 14,401 who braved the wet were rewarded by seeing the Seals jump off into a tie for the league lead.

THE SEALS downed Vancouver's infant team 6-3 to share top spot with Portland, who took advantage of a pair of eight inning homers to beat Sacramento 3-2 before 6559 fans.

The defending champion Seattle Rainiers split with Hollywood, winning an afternoon game 5-4 and losing at night 7-6. Los Angeles walloped San Diego 9-2 in daylight but lost 3-1 in the night contest.

In San Diego only 2423 ventured out into the cold afternoon for the opener and 3517 came in through the turnstiles at night. Hollywood's opening ceremonies, complete with starlets and George Jessel, brought out only 1667 and the night attendance was but 1807.

City, county and state officials replaced the entertainers at first-pitch throwing in the other ball parks.

SAN FRANCISCO, opening as a Red Sox farm club, collected 13 hits and took advantage of sloppy Vancouver fielding to make the Mounties' entrance into the league a losing one.

Southpaw R. W. Smith, second Seal pitcher, held the Mounties hitless and runless for four and two-thirds innings but walked three, hit one batter and chucked two wild pitches.

Sacramento's veteran knuckleballer Earl Harrist seemed well on his way to a win over Portland with a 2-0 lead in the eighth when he suddenly served up a home run ball to Jack Littrell, was betrayed by an infield error and then gave Dick Young a home run loss that decided the game.

THOUSAND PALMS

By IZZETA HUNT

The Thousand Palms Mothers' Club held its monthly meeting on Tuesday at the schoolhouse. It was presided over by the vice-president, Mrs. John Papp, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Everett Willis.

One of the subjects settled at this meeting was the changing of the club name from that of "Mothers' Club" to a more inclusive name, "Thousand Palms School-Community Club." After a lengthy discussion, this name received the unanimous vote of all members present. Although the club changed its name now it was decided not to use it officially until the beginning of the fall term.

The teacher, Mrs. Alyne Kemp, announced that she is holding "Open House" at the school on the evening of Tuesday, April 24, from 7:30 to 8:30. She urged all parents to make it a point to see their children's work. The children will be the official hosts and hostesses to their parents.

There were ten ladies present at the meeting: Mrs. Alyne Kemp, Mrs. Chris Christensen, Mrs. Laverne Swerlain, Mrs. Edna Yocum, Mrs. Charles Hulbert, Mrs. Warren Mills, Mrs. Elinore Smith, Mrs. Jean McCormick, Mrs. John Papp, and Miss Dorothy Hawkins.

Everyone is invited to the next meeting, the last one for this school term, to be held at the schoolhouse on Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hess spent the Easter weekend with her sisters, Mrs. Libby Graves and Mrs. Hazel Fisher, in Los Angeles.

Rental Owners Vote Approval of Diagonal Road

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Endorsement of the proposed diagonal road from Indian Avenue to a point on Palm Drive about halfway between Dillon Road and Pierson Blvd. has been voted by the Desert Hot Springs Rental Owners' Association.

The same route previously had won the endorsement of the DHS Chamber of Commerce directors. The rental owners' vote endorsing the diagonal was unanimous, according to President Frank Kibbey.

Opposition to the diagonal has been voted by the DHS Improvement Association.

The North Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce also has voted opposition to the diagonal, and instead has endorsed the paving of Indian Avenue as far as Pierson Boulevard.

Miss Elizabeth Nelson and her mother, Mrs. Jonny Nelson returned home from their tour to Sweden and through Norway. They report a very "lovely" trip after they got used to the cold weather. Before sailing they had a tour through New York City and then out to the Statue of Liberty but due to repairs being made they did not get to go up through the center of the statue.

Upon their arrival home they found that the ship that they had sailed to Sweden on, was in the harbor at Wilmington so Saturday afternoon they motored into town to visit with the personnel of the ship, all of whom they had learned to like on the trip across the Atlantic. Intending to show their friends Los Angeles they learned with regret that the ship was to sail in a few hours. They stayed on board and had a farewell party there.

Guests of Mrs. Jack Singler this past week were Mrs. Anne Phillips, a sister of Mrs. Singler, from Hollywood, and Mrs. H. J. Salmon, from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Salmon is a grand-godmother of Phillip Singler.

Miss Helen Goodman has returned to Los Angeles after a two months vacation at the Chase ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beachey were callers here Sunday at their Date Garden home, but returned to Los Angeles the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McPherson, Jr., returned to their home in San Luis Obispo, and Mr. and Mrs. William Secrist left for Los Angeles, after spending the Easter vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lennie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lentz of Los Angeles returned to their home after a few days spent here in the Desert.

Mrs. Ray Gastil was invited to a surprise birthday shower on two of her neighbors, Mrs. C. E. White, and daughter Linda, whose birthdays are on the same day only to find that she was the honoree for a baby shower.

Mrs. C. E. White and Mrs. L. C. White gave the party, and it was in the patio of the house trailer of Mrs. L. C. White.

Those present were Mrs. Mona Wallace, Mrs. June Wallace, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Wilson and two daughters, who came all the way from Los Angeles for the party, Mrs. Bunker, Mrs. Combs, Mrs. Zackary, Mrs. C. E. White and daughter, Linda, Mrs. L. C. White and daughter, Patty, and Mrs. Whiteacre.

Many gifts were presented to Mrs. Gastil, but Mrs. White and Linda had received their birthday gifts the night before. After everyone present was served a lunch, the children were all invited in for lunch and then lunch was taken to every one of the men in the camp, at his own trailer. Altogether 35 people were served.

Roger White is here for one week of his leave from the San Diego Naval Base, and Wednesday he is going to Shell Beach for the other week's leave with other relatives, before returning to the Base. Then he is being sent to Midway Island from San Diego.

Guests of the Desert Moon for the Easter vacation were Bette Noyes, Charlotte Logan, Dianna Logan, Nancy Duval, Mary Yarbrough, Julie Goddard, Kathy Bartels and Mary Creinke, all from Los Angeles; Mrs. Elizabeth MacKinnon and her son, Donald, and daughter, Betty, from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Virginia Wilson and two daughters remained with Mrs. Golda Hicks over Sunday, after coming up for the shower on Mrs. Gastil.

The 20th wedding anniversary of Tommie and Frosty Briggs and the birthday of Orpha Geier were the occasion of a surprise party Wednesday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pendergast and Mrs. Sussie St. Clair at the Pleasure Inn.

The refreshment table was centered with a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Many gifts were received by the honorees, after which refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Briggs, Vic, Suzanne and Tommie Lei, Orpha Geier, "Doc" Elliot, Trudy Watkins, Kay Yager, Ann Diederichs.

Open house was held Saturday evening at the home of Gene and Lillie Troxell, in observance of their 28th wedding anniversary.

Tendering gifts and enjoying the dancing were Jake and Rilla Niles, Nancy and Sidney Morgan of Los Angeles, Marilyn and Hirschel Weedman of San Diego, Don and Vivian Privat, Elinore Helnick, Garnett Hyton, Tex and Beverly Wilhite, Vernon and Shirley Eldred and Velton Eldred of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. William Goforth and the honoree's grandchildren, Diane and Charles Ash of San Bernardino.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Thompson entertained with a dancing party at their home for 45 teenagers, residents of North Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs and their guests. Refreshments of cake and soft drinks were served. Mr. Bradley operates the assembly plant on Dillon Road.

Visitors for the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gruh were Mrs. Gruh's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Arnott and their daughter, Margaret Jean, from Dillingham, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chandler, 11-364 Indian Avenue, made a business trip to Los Angeles over the weekend.

Harold and Dorla Case, who have a winter home here, left Sunday for Ellsfield, Michigan, where they have extensive farming interests which will occupy their time for the summer season.

Mrs. Russell Ostrander and her daughter, Janice, from Glendale, were vacation guests of Mrs. Ostrander's brother, Howard Stone. The Ostranders have purchased a lot here, and will build a vacation home on it in the near future.

Geraldine Sheehan, from Gardena, was a weekend guest of Mrs. Kay Yager. Gerry lived here for several years before moving to Gardena, where she attends Banning School.

Nancy, Teddy and Jackie Sam, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sam of Los Angeles, spent their vacation with their grandmother, Hilda Carnahan, at the Tramvue Ranch here.

Sidney and Nancy Morgan, who recently purchased property here, brought Nancy's sister, Marilyn Weedman of San Diego, out for a few days of desert air and mineral baths last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennon and their children, Dallas, Richard, and Nancy, motored to El Monte to visit at the home of John's brother, M. P. Kennon Jr.

Four generations were represented recently at a dinner at Carr's Restaurant in Desert Hot Springs when Darrell, Carol and Vivien Lee Geier drove out from Ontario to spend Darrell's birthday with his mother, Orpha Geier of North Palm Springs. Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Geier and Vivien, Orpha Geier, Mollie Longbrake (grandmother of Darrell), who is visiting here from Canoga Park, William Jaeger and Ann Diederichs.

Jack and Marry Simmons, who spend their winters in North Palm Springs, have left for their summer home in Bloomington, Illinois.

Tea Dance Series Ends at La Paz

The setting April sun found Mrs. Noble Banks of Palm Springs and Grosse Point, Michigan pouring from one end of the beautifully appointed silver tea table during the Sunday afternoon tea dansant at the La Paz while Mrs. J. Blake Fields graciously substituted for Mrs. Muriel Fulton at the other end of the table. Mrs. Fields arrived with her husband, J. Blake Fields and her mother, Mrs. Homer Hilton. As this was the last of the charming al fresco affairs of the season Mrs. Banks and Miss Fulton were to preside as they had done for the original gathering.

Enjoying the dance along with many of the hotel guests were numerous local residents among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wade sharing a ringside table with the Mahon Mansons.

Dorothy Scheib entertained her mother, Mrs. Mae Miller of Santa Barbara, at another ringside table.

Others were Philip Tonge and his charming wife (Philip was here last when he appeared at the Playhouse with Zasu Pitts in the "Solid Gold Cadillac"; George Shaw sporting a Phoenix tan but loudly singing the praises of Palm Springs and home.

Later arrivals who stayed on for dinner in the Spur and Sable included: Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Niles and their children, Sidney (Toughie) and Cindy, Mrs. Austin McManus, Ralph and Florence Shelley, Mrs. Frank Russell Payne and her house-guests, and Janice Chiquine.

Safe Driving Awards Go to Employees

Following his yearly custom of holding a safety awards dinner for each of his company's 16 branches, C. H. Tanner, president of Tanner Motor Livery, arranged to hold the 1956 dinner at La Paz on Monday. Due to the size and convenience of the location, this season's dinner for the Palm Springs branch also included the Riverside office, with guests including drivers and their wives and members of the office staffs.

Due to 24 hour shifts and the public service involved, it was necessary to hold a luncheon as well as a dinner. The luncheon, held in the Samovar Room Monday, included 10 members of the Tanner staff and had as guests of honor Mrs. Louise McCann, city clerk, and Chief of Police August Kettmann. The dinner, with 50 staff members, including Mrs. Cecil Isenagle, Palm Springs manager, had Councilman and Mrs. Earle Strebe as guests of honor. Driver Howard Stewart, who has been with the company for 10 years, was high point winner with a score of 4950 points. Points are awarded on a quarterly basis and are exchangeable for merchandise. Following cocktails and dinner the group was entertained by the piano and organ stylings of Al Anthony.

Close Drugstore to Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Ting of Escondido, weekend visitors, hosted a group of around 26 at cocktails and dinner Sunday evening at the Tennis Club.

The Tings, who own a drug store in the coast city, were celebrating 36 years of operation in the same location. This weekend they closed their drug store for the first Sunday during those 36 years and came to Palm Springs to celebrate. Their store manager and other long time employees and friends, were among their guests.

Tea Honors Visiting Curator

An afternoon tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith honored Mr. and Mrs. Egemont Retz of Santa Barbara. Mr. Retz is curator of the Santa Barbara Museum and is credited with developing it into one of the outstanding museums of the country. He has been spending some time here mounting the familiar birds of the desert for exhibit.

Among the group there was much discussion of the crowded condition of the Palm Springs Museum and the great interest shown in its exhibits and educational programs. Frequently the attendance is so great that the audience crowds the doors and windows and stand on the sidewalk hoping to be able to hear and see at least part of the program or the pictures.

Dr. Smith, who is director of the Palm Springs Museum, with Mr. Retz, added much interest to the discussions.

Among those present were Messrs and Mesdames Chester Moorten, Claude Gottbeuett, Harlan Peake, W. Scott Lewis, Claude Yerkes, and Miss Harriett Farnsworth.

Mrs. Moorten poured tea for the group.

Swedish Youth Club Pays Visit

About 60 members of the Swedish Youth Club of Los Angeles, headed by their president Einar Nivellius, spent the weekend in Palm Springs at Casa Del Camino.

Swimming and singing around the pool, accompanied by accordion and violin music, added up to a pleasant weekend for the visitors who enjoyed the wonderful spring weather and desert air.

Zaddie Bunker Has Visitors

Houseguests of Mrs. Zaddie Bunker are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Baird (Baird Aviation) of Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, who recently sold their Village home, and Miss Virginia Parker of Washington, D.C. All will be guests of Mrs. Bunker at the Beaux Arts Ball tomorrow night.

Miss Parker, an accomplished pianist, flew West to appear on the Jimmy Durante show.

Do You Know Color of Mink?

MADISON, Wis. — It's getting so you have to think twice to recall the real color of wild mink.

Some 75 per cent of mink pelts marketed in recent years have been such fashionable shades as pastel (brown), topaz (light brown), gunmetal (dark gray), sapphire (clear gray) and palomino and buff (very pale tan), according to Richard Shackelford, University of Wisconsin mink breeder.

They are a far cry from the brown country cousins caught by French trappers in Wisconsin two or three hundred years ago. The color changes are produced, not through dying, but through genetic changes.

Years of research are necessary to uncover the mechanics of pelt color inheritance. Shackelford said. Some 2,000 mink ranchers in Wisconsin sold about $22,000,000 worth of pelts in 1955, he pointed out.

Some 70 per cent of all furs used in the United States today are mink, Shackelford said, with pelt production raising about 15 per cent yearly for several years. Average pelt prices have gone up 10 to 20 per cent.

Increased use of small furs such as scarves, stoles and cape stoles brought a rise in the popularity of mink. But the 60 to 80 pelts needed for a full-sized coat are still beyond the financial reach of the average buyer.

The average price of all mink pelts sold in the United States last year was $22, but a good pelt "of promising color" can bring more than $100, Shackelford said. One thousand dollars isn't an unusual price for a breeding male of a popular color.

The Colorado A. & M. College suggests this method of removing yellow discoloration from kitchen sinks or lavatory. Line the basin with paper toweling, then pour chlorine bleach on the towels until they are soaked. After half an hour, remove the towels and rinse the basin with hot water.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The mountains will loom darkly behind the Tennis Club . . . and the desert will stretch for miles under the desert stars . . . as their two favorite models form a fitting setting for the artists' Beaux Arts Ball tomorrow night . . . Giddily gaudy costumes will bring the glamour of the Orient, the revelry of Parisian artists-and-models balls and the native costumes of the far corners of the earth . . . as this Fifth Annual Beaux Arts Ball is themed to "An International Night" . . .

There will be dining and dancing and entertainment . . . and prizes for the best costumes . . . On the tennis courts painted scenes of many countries will provide fitting backdrops for the costumed dancers . . .

Charles Irwin, headline comedian, who will emcee the show, will do specialty numbers . . . and dances and songs of various countries . . . will match the painted scenery . . . There will be music and dancing and the spirit of gaiety inspired by a costume ball.

Sinuous and sensuous are those Haitian dances . . . the Katherine Dunham dancers are doing at the Chi Chi this week . . . The beating drums, the dusky dancers in their excitingly different dance routines and the picturesque and colorful costumes . . . make this one of the most unforgettable night club offerings of the season . . . These dances are sheer, poetic drama . . . The "Flaming Youth" scene . . . the cake walks . . . and the harmonizing "dark-town strutters" bit are beautifully staged and good theatre . . . but it is the Haitian dances that haunt you . . . Katherine Dunham is actress, dancer, and a ball of fire . . . all in one lithe and beauteous package . . . This is the greatest act ever staged in Palm Springs . . . even though it is a trifle cramped for stage space . . . Just don't miss it . . .

During Sunday's tea dance at Las Paz, which was the last of the season . . . Ralph Wilcox Taylor received word that his showplace home "White Court" . . . located on Palm Beach's famed Coconut Row . . . has been purchased by Tony and Sally DeMarco . . . Following right on the heels of this sale was an offer on Monday morning from agents of Heiress Barbara Hutton to purchase his "Fairlawn" estate in Newport, Rhode Island . . . Taylor, La Paz owner, who winters here at his Palm Springs house "Villa Algeria" on West Tahquitz, intends to maintain his summer residence at Newport . . . and turned down the Hutton offer . . .

The John Porter Clarks are going abroad this month for a six week tour . . . They will leave Los Angeles by Polar Flight for Copenhagen . . . and then will go on to Greece and down into Egypt if war conditions don't worsen . . .

Moe Lyons Weds Eastern Girl

Moe Lyons and Jessica Robinson who were married last week by a Justice of the Peace in Las Vegas, repeated their vows before Rabbi Leon Rosenberg at Temple Isaiah on Sunday.

The bridegroom's brother Dave Lyons and his wife acted as best man and matron of honor for the informal ceremony.

The honeymoon couple left Monday for Florida with plans to return here in September and make Palm Springs their home.

Always add the flavoring to boiled custards, frostings, and candies after they have cooled, to prevent evaporation of the flavoring.

John said he plans to inspect a few tramways on the trip . . .

Talked with Ned Crawford in Portland the other day . . . and he and Joan won't get down here in time for Desert Circus as they had hoped . . . but they expect to make it by the end of April . . . Between now and then they will join Eve and Bill Brooks in Vancouver and try out the Brooks' new boat . . .

Many guests have enjoyed Palm Springs and the home of the Harold Becks at 336 West El Portal . . . His father, J. M. Beck (publisher of the Centerville, Iowa, paper) has left for home after a month's visit . . . Mrs. Oscar Alspaugh, Mrs. Beck's mother, has returned to her home in Kansas after being here since Christmas . . . A fortnight's visitor was Mrs. Beck's aunt, Mrs. Joe Toeller of Oceanside . . . and leaving this week is another aunt, Mrs. Emma J. Minter of Pasadena, who came for the Easter holidays . . . The Becks' son Robert who was home from Claremont Men's College for the holidays . . . filled the house with students from the college and from Scripps while he was here . . . It sounds like it is going to be real quiet around the Beck house for a week or so . . .

The B. B. Robinsons have taken the Arthur Pollard house at 679 Palo Verde Avenue . . . for a month's stay . . .

The Packy Dees, who have been here at their house at 348 Merito Place for their annual winter visit . . . leave for their home in Chicago around April 19 . . . After two weeks there . . . they will go to Long Beach, Indiana, to occupy their summer home . . .

A sketch of a long, long trailer "Donarita" . . . with mountains in the background, adorns the invitations sent out by Don and Elvira Bleitz . . . who are entertaining at a Sunday brunch on April 22 . . . The party will be held in Blue Skies Village clubhouse . . . as they have their trailer there and come down frequently for the weekend . . .

Beaux Arts Ball to be Gay

With Charles Irwin acting as master of ceremony for the Beaux Arts ball tomorrow evening at the Tennis Club, the entertainment promises to be of particular interest to the gaily costumed and masked participants in this evening of fun and frolic for Palm Springs artists, their guests and members of the Desert Art Center, sponsors of the event.

Settings of seven different countries as well as a typical American Main Street will backdrop the tennis courts where dancing and entertainment will take place. From the various settings will emerge the performers in native costume in dances and songs of those countries.

Oscar Stern and Mrs. Grace Duncan have announced that Irwin, who is currently engaged in 20th Century's "The King and I" will offer various specialty numbers which made him a headline comedian in many Broadway musicals.

Hawaiian Style Show on Friday

A pre-luau showing of Island fashions will be featured when Waltah Clarke stages an All-Hawaiian fashion show at the Palm Springs Ranch Club on Friday. It precedes by two weeks the luau that is being held at the Ranch Club on April 27.

Waltah, who staged the first All-Hawaiian show four years ago at the opening of South Pacific Room at El Mirador, will commentate the luncheon showing. The history of Island fashions, from the early days of the grass skirts and the missionary-inspired mother hubbards, will be skillfully woven into his narration, with Hawaiian music setting the romantic mood.

Top models will wear the vivid prints in cottons, silks and rayons, showing the designs of ShaHeen of Honolulu and Noel of Hawaii as well as originals especially designed for the Waltah Clarke shops, in Palm Springs at El Mirador and on Palm Canyon Drive, in Laguna, and at Disneyland. The tea timers that have an increasing popularity, the Japanese Obi dress, bathing suit and jacket ensembles in hand screened prints will be shown.

A touch of the Islands is to be found in most Palm Springs wardrobes as so many American sun fashions are made in the Islands, and with the luau season at hand this is a timely showing.

Reservations for the luncheon show, which starts at noon, may be made by calling the Ranch Club (5061).

LAFF A DAY

"Your oil needs changing... preferably to another car."

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

"FLEA" EYE VIEW OF DALMATIAN

Mrs. Schwine, who has a soft spot for all dumb animals, has just started a movement to have a "Be Kind to Fleas Week." She says the way things are today a hard-working flea hardly knows where his next dog is coming from. Pet shops are selling more and more flea powder and D.D.T. and city people are always giving their dogs unnecessary baths. In the good old days there were plenty of dogs to go around and if a flea got tired of being cooped up on a tiny Chihuahua he could move to a roomy, spacious Spaniel or to a ranch type Dachshund. Or if he liked the wide open spaces, to a Great Dane. Mrs. S. says a flea isn't a flea if it hasn't got a dog. And vice versa.

NOW IS THE TIME

TO MAKE A REAL BUY! An estate sized property with a two bedroom, two bath main house (the view from here is second to none) . . . and on a lower level a three bedroom, two bath guest house . . . Between the houses is an artistic pool and flagstone patio. The landscaped grounds are a work of art. All this within walking distance to town . . . Priced for quick sale at $47,500 and that's completely furnished.

TO MAKE A SOUND INVESTMENT! A duplex located close to town. Each apartment has two bedrooms, panel ray heat and good cooling. No management problems — there are seasoned tenants in both apartments. The terms and income are excellent . . . Only $21,500 unfurnished.

TO START WITH THE BEST. Estate size corner lot, located on Cahulla Road and Chino Drive. Lot size is 225'x116'. $17,750.

Farm Bill Compromise Up For Vote

Democrats Predict
Victory for Rigid
Price Program

By UNITED PRESS
Today was farm bill day in the House.

The Democratic-backed compromise farm bill with rigid 90 per cent price props and other features obnoxious to the administration was scheduled to come up for a vote.

Democrats predicted victory. But Republicans struggled on in the tense atmosphere to stop Congress from sending President Eisenhower a bill they believe he would veto.

Republicans sought a new compromise around which they could rally votes.

Both sides agreed that the crucial vote would come on a GOP move to send the bill back to a joint conference committee for revision. If the motion fails, members predicted the House would pass the bill and send it to the Senate.

Other congressional news:

CIA: The Senate took up a resolution calling for a joint congressional committee to watch over the operations of the Central Intelligence Agency. Powerful Senate leaders of both parties opposed it.

UNIFORMS: The Senate Investigating Sub-committee called two more associates of a blacklisted government contractor — Joey Abrams of New York. The subcommittee is investigating alleged payoffs to government officials in connection with contracts for military uniforms.

INTERNAL SECURITY: The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee pressed its investigation of alleged Communist attempts to infiltrate the New Orleans area. The subcommittee summoned Robert Blanchard, a former New Orleans TV artist, and his wife, Winifred.

CIVIL RIGHTS: A high administration source said the President will be "very disappointed" if Congress does not pass his civil rights program. The source—a Justice Department official—said the President is "solid" for the program aimed principally at protecting voting rights.

DEFENSE: Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) predicted "further step-ups" in B52 jet bomber production after a special Senate investigation of the relative strength of American and Soviet air power. He said the administration's proposal to buy 30 more of the intercontinental bombers is not big enough.

UN Aide Pleads with Egyptian Head for Peace

CAIRO, Egypt — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld pleaded today with Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser for peace in the Holy Land.

They met in Nasser's office to the wailing of an air raid siren test and against a background of new Israeli charges of "acts of terror" in Israel during the night.

The sirens shrieked their warning signal as Hammarskjöld, immaculate in a dark blue suit and a sober black tie, stepped smiling from his limousine outside the presidency and walked inside for the crucial conference.

High Egyptian sources said Nasser, key man in the Middle East crisis, was prepared to propose creation of a military vacuum between Egyptian and Israeli forces as the best means of keeping the peace.

This would be accomplished by pulling back troops one kilometer, six-tenths of a mile, from each side of the border. He has made such a suggestion before. This would be a formal proposal.

But Israel said Hammarskjöld's mission would be useless unless he wrung a promise from Nasser to end the terror activities of Fedayeen—the do-or-die commandos who have struck deep inside Israel.

SAFETY DRIVING awards by Tanner Motor Livery prompted a banquet for several Tanner Motor Livery and taxicab drivers and guests at La Paz Guest Ranch, with Charles Tanner, president, making the awards in person. Among those who received the awards were: Howard Stewart, 10-year safety record, Francis Rogers, eight years of safe driving; Cecil Goff, nine years; P. E. Steffensen, six years; H. P. Mathias, four years; Joseph Dawson, five years; Carl Nix, Basil Foulds and Duwain Wolfe, two years each; Leo and John Harrison, one year each. Among the others present were Polly Isenagie, manager of the local Tanner Motor Livery and Yellow Cab, pictured above with Tanner; Mr. and Mrs. Earle Strebe, Police Chief and Mrs. August Kettmann and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flavin.

7 Killed In 2 Plane Crashes In SW Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, —Seven persons were killed and one seriously injured in two separate plane crashes in southwestern Alaska during the past two days. All six persons aboard a Cordova Airlines plane died when the craft crashed Monday and a bush pilot was killed and his passenger injured when their light plane crashed yesterday.

Search parties reached the wreckage of the Cordova plane late yesterday afternoon and reported the Aero Commander crashed at the 3000-foot level of a jagged mountain peak 72 miles south of here. The plane was on a flight from Anchorage to Seward, Alaska.

Those aboard were identified as Bruce Robertson, Seattle; Raymond Gillis, Seward; B. J. Iams, Tacoma, Wash.; D. Sayres, Seattle; pilot John Waide, Anchorage, and a military officer whose name was not immediately released.

The light plane, in which Pilot Hakon Christensen was killed and E. Wells Ervin, prominent Anchorage business leader was injured, went down five miles south of Cordova. The plane was en route to Anchorage from Seattle.

Candidate Backs Mining Study

Jacqueline Cochran Odum, Congressional aspirant from the 29th district, told members of the Western Mining Council that if she is elected she plans to make a study and analysis of all pertinent mining problems, with a view of being intelligently informed.

Mrs. Odum expressed great faith in the mining possibilities of this region. She stated that her proposed study would justify her sponsoring and championing beneficial legislation and the cause of domestic mining in general.

The candidate was introduced by Capt. Elise Wolley, public relations chairman of the Desert Chapter of WMC at the meeting held in Indio.

Hotel Picket Bound Over For Jury Trial

John Wesley Stewart, 55, of 680 East Amado Road, was bound over to a jury trial in Palm Springs Justice Court yesterday after he pleaded not guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated and petty theft before Judge Eugene Theriault. May 8 at 10 a.m. was set for picket duty in front of El Mirador at 7 a.m. Tuesday, and was relieved an hour later by his wife, also hired to picket by the Culinary Workers, Bartenders & Hotel Service Workers Union, AFL Local 535.

Capt. O. O. Johnson, one of the officers who arrested the suspect while he was allegedly driving while drunk Tuesday afternoon, said Stewart told him he went on picket duty in front of El Mirador at 7 a.m. Tuesday, and was relieved an hour later by his wife, also hired to picket by the Culinary Workers, Bartenders & Hotel Service Workers Union, AFL Local 535.

Stewart purportedly told Johnson that he then drove past the various rendezvous spots where deliveries to struck hotels were made by union trucking companies.

Johnson said Stewart also admitted taking 80 pounds of butter that he knew was scheduled for delivery to El Mirador.

Johnson is scheduling talks with Stewart concerning other activities brought to the attention of the police in the past. He said union representatives talked with him yesterday afternoon, and told him they were unaware of the suspect's alleged activities.

Mother Reverses Murder Story

LOS ANGELES, —A former mental patient has denied she murdered her four-year-old daughter and insisted the child died in an accident caused by escaping heater fumes.

Mrs. Jean E. Shaw, 35, has been arraigned on a charge of murdering her daughter, Susan. The girl's body was found Sunday in a suitcase on a vacant lot.

Mrs. Shaw previously told police she first poisoned and then gassed the child. The suspect, however, yesterday declared her innocence.

15 Hurt as High Winds and Rain Strike Florida

By UNITED PRESS

Violent winds and rain hit Florida last night and snow, rain and dust storms plagued the Far West.

At least 15 persons were injured when strong winds with tornado velocity ripped through parts of Florida. Hundreds of trailers were knocked over and dozens of roofs were blown off in the West Hollywood and Dania areas.

An airline pilot reported a tornado south of Fort Pierce and another was reported at North Perry airport at Hollywood.

However, Miami Weather Bureau officials doubted the storms were tornadoes. They called them "downdrafts" from thundersqualls that dumped as much as three inches of rain in parts of the state.

Police said they could not make any accurate estimate of the damage because of the confusing tangle of wrecked trailers and debris left in the wake of the storm.

Meanwhile, cooler temperatures moved into the Pacific Coast region early today following light rain and snow which fell last night. Oregon and California received light rain, while snow was reported in the mountains. Five inches of snow blanketed Lakeview, Ore., last night. Temperatures dropped as much as 23 degrees in the early morning hours.

Near gale force winds churned sand and dust in the desert regions of California last night and moved into extreme Western Arizona early today. The 40 to 50 mile an hour winds stirred up sand and dust and obscured vision of motorists in the area.

Rising temperatures warmed the Central Mountain and Plains states early today. Warmer weather also spread into the western and southern parts of the Midwest.

Light to moderate rains continued to fall in the Middle Mississippi Valley area with a 24 hour total of 2.21 reported at Tupelo, Miss.

Red Cross $1500 Short of Goal

Palm Springs Red Cross fund drive has reached the $16,000 mark, and remains only $1500 from its quota, Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, general chairman, reported today.

The drive is being concluded at the present time, and all persons who have not donated are asked to do so as soon as possible.

The quota for this year was the largest ever given the Palm Springs area.

DR. HUGH M. TINER, president of Pepperdine College, will be featured speaker at the Charter Night dinner for the Cathedral City Rotary Club at Shadow Mountain Club tonight. The newly organized club was sponsored by the Palm Springs and Palm Desert clubs. Bill Peacock is president of the new club.

Merchants Gridiron Chairmen Named

Adrian Rosen, president of the Retail Merchants Association, has appointed Leo Baker and Stan Jallof as co-chairmen of the RMA's annual press gridiron banquet to be held at Chi Chi Starlite Room, May 10, starting at 8 p.m.

The soiree will give all members of the merchants' group a chance to "get even" with representatives of newspapers and radio stations.

Crowd Expected for Opening of Chest Broadcast

Between 300 and 500 persons are expected to attend the kick-off party for the 72-hour Marathon Radio Broadcast on behalf of the Palm Springs Community Chest, it was reported today by Ace Hudkins, who has arranged the fund-raising wind-up.

The entire broadcast will emanate from the Chi Chi, and the opening party will start there at 2 a.m., Friday.

An elaborate buffet will be offered, together with continuous entertainment throughout the early morning hours. Featured will be dancing to the music of Bill Alexander and his orchestra (Chi Chi), Pat Barbara and his orchestra (Palm House) and the Guadalajara Boys (Doll House), plus the entertainers from the Palm House.

Stars of the entertainment world are expected to appear at the opening party, and also throughout the 72-hour period.

The broadcast will be continuous over KPAL, with parts of it to be carried over KFWB of Hollywood.

Sharing disc jockey duties with Hudkins will be the well known entertainer, Larry Finley.

Telephone girls will be on duty throughout the 72-hour period, taking donations which are counted as votes for favorite singers of Palm Springs residents. Each vote is one dime.

The public is invited to attend the opening party, and all other events of the continuous broadcast.

Violence Feared During Algiers Fasting Period

ALGIERS — French security officials in Algeria doubled their vigilance today against the threat of Arab outbreaks during the Moslem observance of Ramadan, a fasting period which begins Thursday.

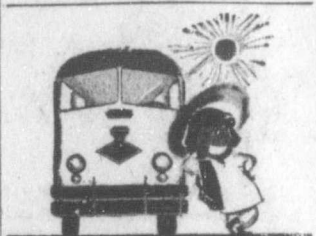

In the alleyways of the Casbah, native merchants shut up shop in response to mysterious orders from the murderous anti-French underground.

The hit-and-run guerrilla war in Algeria is touched off by a massacre on All Saints' Day—Nov. 1—1954, and later native outbreaks often have coincided with Moslem or Christian holidays.

Winning Candidates In Banning Election

Winning candidates in yesterday's election in Banning was the slate of John Raatz, J. C. Wages and Elwood Rutherford, defeating two write-in candidates, William Barnes and Robert Sparks, and Raymond Bach, who had filed for the office.

Cleo Huse unseated incumbent Mary Hill, who has served as city clerk for 20 years, and Nell Kobs was named city treasurer.

I'm going to let you in on a wonderful beauty secret. Drink Carnation Slender. That's right! You see, wonderful Carnation Slender not only helps you stay stylishly slim, but it also supplies the vital milk nourishment you need for clear skin, bright eyes, extra pep—all the things that make a woman truly beautiful.

Surveys show that we women often stop drinking milk in our teens, yet we need its health benefits every bit as much as our husbands and children do. Carnation Slender is the best way I know to put those benefits back in your diet—without adding extra calories. And it tastes so good, too.

Burning Up?
You bet you are. We gals burn up plenty of energy every day just getting through our household tasks. We need protein to keep us going. Carnation Slender is fortified with extra nonfat milk solids to provide more of this precious, energy-giving element than even whole milk.

You can't be a beauty without a pretty smile. We all need calcium for strong healthy teeth and bones. Where do we get it? From Carnation Slender, of course!

Carnation Slender can't work miracles, but it does give us the important minerals we need to help keep our appetites up to par and our dispositions a little more even.

How to be a
Glamour Girl
I always take a ten-minute break in the middle of the morning, and another in the afternoon. I prop my feet up and enjoy a big, tall glass of Slender. I find it keeps me feeling refreshed and looking lots more glamorous, too.

COME INTO OUR PARLOR!
When you visit Disneyland, don't miss Carnation's turn-of-the-century Ice Cream Parlor on Main Street.
